Oakes was to pay the contract price to Dal- Ruppricht gave me this check (the ton in settlement of a debt, alleged to one for $900) for Mr. Dalton, and I enbe due him from Oakes. The latter attempted to sell the order to J. B. Lanktree, but failed, whereupon Stedman was called in to assist in negotiating the sale of the claims. Stedman made out the claims under the direction of Dalton, and sold them to Lanktree pur sugnt to the agreement between the Assessor and Oakes.

Lanktree paid $1,500 for the claims in two checks, drawn to the order of Oakes, who endorsed them, delivering one to Charles Ruppricht, one of Dal-ton's deputies, and the other to Dalton himself. Subsequently the checks! were cashed by G. B. Daniels and the money paid over to Dalton.

AFTERNOON SESSION. In the afternoon Mr. Fitzgerald resumed argument against the objection interposed by the prosecution to the question put to Oakes in the forenoon; "Was it your intention that the books should be furnished when you gave the order to Stedman?" Fitzgerald contended that the question was proper to show intent. He said there could be conspiracy without guilty intent at the time the books were ordered and the laims discounted. The crime, if a crime was committed, was committed, he said, when the money was drawn from the county. Dalton did nor draw the money from the county, but he got the money obtained by hypothecating the claims. Now what was the intent of Oakes, who got the order and hypothecated it to Lanktree?

MUST OBEY THE COURT'S INJUNCTION

FOUND GUILTY OF CONTEMPT OF COURT FOR INTERFERING IN LABOR MATTERS.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., July 24.— Judge Jackson, rendering his decision in the "Mother" Jones contempt cases to-day held that all the defendants had vio-lated the injunction and were guilty of contempt of court. Sentence in the case "Mother" Jones was postponed until his afternoon. In the case of the four oreigners who cannot speak English. sentence was postponed until the arrival of their interpreter. Thomas Haggerty was given ninety days in jail and the other five defendants sixty days each. The opinion supported the rights of the courts to use injunction and the right of laborers to work when they wish to do so without interference from organized labor or any other source. CHICAGO, July 21.—John Mitchell, president of the United Mine Workers of America, said today that Judge Jackson's lecision would be laid before Presiden decision would be laid before President Roosevolt at once with protests and that the President would be asked to intercede in behalf of American citizenship. The cases will be carried to the United States Supreme Court. President Mitchell said: "The decision imperils the rights of all Americans in the courts."

The new Rustler Committee has been appointed and will commence operations at once. The meetings are always in the nature of social affairs, a large crowd is on hand to participate in them. Their first entertainment will probably occur in the course of the coming month.

On Friday morning, July 25, at 10 o'clock, the Relief Committee will attend the funeral of Brother P. G. C. A. Page in a body. The funeral will be held from Taylor's undertaking parlors, 1211 Clay street, and the services will be conducted according to the rites of Odd Fellowship. It is expected that a full attendance of Odd Fellows will be on hand.

Brother Page was a well known and highly respected citizen of Stockton, and was employed by a large San Francisco firm of dealers in hides as their buyer. During his traveling back and forth throughout this and other States, he was always faithful to the principles of Odd Feliowship, and while his place in the ranks will remain unfilled his work will be remembered by the members of the lodge with the greatest satisfaction.

The General Relief Committee, I. O. O. F. will hold the last meeting of the present term on next Friday evening. July 25, at I. O. O. F. Hall, corner of Eleventh and Franklin streets, when the concluding work of the present board will be taken up and finally disposed of. The present term has been a very gratifying one for this committee. Its revenue has been largely added to, through the efforts of the members of the Committee on Annual Ball, and the presence of a congenial membership at all the meetings has helped to earry the work of ministering to the sick along in an enthuslastic and energetic manner.

HOLD CONVENTION

The greatest championship battle an alleged interference by McCreedie at which has ever taken place in this city the plate. He claimed that the Judge got will be pulled off this evening before in the way of catcher Graham and althe Acme Athletic Club, under the management of Billy Lavigne, when Joe Gans, the present lightweight champion of the world, will meet Rufe Curner of Stockton.

Both men are young and have all the energy and daring of youth and the predilection of the sable-hued gentle was when he sent a straight one over the plate to Truck Egan in the seventh. The Dray soaked it fair in the nose for a homer, making the only run of the afternoon for the Senators.

Young Mr. Thomas, who did the twirling for the Senators, was found for eight safe bingles, and the men who turned their swats into tallies were McCreedie, Lonman and Mohler. The score:

SACRAMENTO. men for fistic pleasures. Each man has trained under the eye of capable and watchful instructors. The weather has been all that could be desired to aid the men in their work. The prowess of each is an established factor among patrons of the prize-ring and the knowledge of this fact has tended to buoy up the gladiators to that degree that each of them is posttive that he is going to win.

This idea is shared by the attendants and friends of each and it is entertained honestly, because the men are really worthy of the confidence which has, been reposed in them. During the past few days both the fighters have been watched by fanciers of the prize ring and those who are capable of judging say they are unable to determine which is the better of the two fighters.

There is a shade of favoritism for Gans for the reason that he is now the champion, as also because he is now, at least, as clever if not more so than he ever was. But that is offset to a degree at least, by the certainty that Turner has certain positive qualities which are liable to make him champion at any time. Turner is skilled. There is no doubt about that. He is a stayer. That is not controverted. He has a forceful punch which is lisastrous in its effect. Besides, all these, Turner has an ambition to be at the top of his class and this, with he other qualities enumerated, makes him an antagonist worthy of any competitor in his class.

Yesterday Gans had a "go" with the gloves with Herman Miller, who is to appear in one of the preliminaries to-night with Cyclone Kelley. Miller, who is a very handy man with the mittens, was warmed up in a manner which made him feel anything but comfort-

Then young Gibbs was taken on and sharp-pointed and stringing blows were exchanged, but the champion seemed as fresh as he was at the out-et. The men are to fight at or under 13 pounds. There was some doubt that Gans would be able to get down to that weight, but yesterday he had got down to 134 1-2 pounds, and tonight, when he weighs in at the ring side, he will be a few ounces even under that weight. Turner arrived here this morning from Stockton, which place he left yesterday. He stopped in San Francisco last night and came across the bay this morning. He was met at the club rooms by a host of his admirers and rooms by a host of his admirers and appeared in exercise costume before a number of sports and his attendants. He bore out all that had been said of him by his trainers. He says he is able to put up the best fight he has ever engaged in and that if he does not win it will not be his fault.

There will be several hundred people from Stockton at the fight tonight and fully one thousand are expected from San Francisco.

San Francisco. The other preliminary, besides that of Miller and Cyclone Kelley above re-ferred to, will be between Louie Long of this city and Hugh McGordon of San Francisco.

Tickets may be procured at Berco-vich's, at the southwest corner of Broadway and Twelfth street.

UNION MEN GREET THE LABOR LEADER.

SAMUEL GOMPERS ADDRESSES THE WORKINGMEN OF OAKLAND ON THE LABOR QUESTION.

American Federation of Labor, and the international labor activities, were in Oakland last night as the guests of the Federated Trades of Alameda county. President Compers and party arrived on the 7:15 narrow gauge from San Francisco, and were met by the executive committee of the San Francisco Labor Council and hundreds of members of trade unions. After a short informal reception at Fourteenth and Franklin streets, the men fell into line and preceded by a band, paraded the principal streets of the city. In the carriages were seated President Gompers, Vice-President Duncan of the Granite Cutters, Max Morris of the Retail Clerks, P. B. Preble, J. B. Lennon and C. K. Smith. After the carriages came hundreds of the union men, representing all of parade was several blocks in length.

THE MEETING. Immediately after the parade, President Compers was driven to the Exposition Building, where a public reception was held, during which the distinguished visitor spoke on the subject of "Federation." The large hall was well filled with spectators before the president and party arrived, and shortly after the visitors had taken their ly after the visitors had taken their seats on a large platform at one end of the hall, the place was crowded with the friends of unionism. On the platform were seated the speakers of the evening and prominent members of the local unions. M. J. Keller, A. F. Carpenter, R. F. Jackson, J. F. W. Sohst, A. Jonas, and F. M. Farwell, represented the Board of Trade, and the Merchants' Exchange, were seated on the platform as vice-presidents.

CALLED TO ORDER.

CALLED TO ORDER. P. B. Preble, secretary of the Fed-crated Trades of Alameda County, in a few introductory remarks, presented C. K. Smith, president of the Federated Trades of Alameda county, and who acted as chairman throughout the

Mr. Smith congratulated those present that they were to have the pleasure of listening to President Gompers. If described the peaceful conditions now existing between employer and employe, and pointed out that it would always be so as long as unions existed. Mr. Smith then introduced J. B. Lennon, secretary of the tailors' union. In part Mr. Lennon said: LENNON'S TALK.

"We do not come here as mission-aries tonight, but as fellow laborers. We are delighted at the conditions in which we find the trade unions out here. The determination on the coast is much stronger than we have it in the East and the spirit of fellowship is is much stronger than we have it in the East and the spirit of fellowship is as strong, if not stronger, than we have it in the East. But there are no dividing lines—nothing separating us. Your wages are higher as a general thing than in the East and you have not the sweat shops—you have not the little children in the mines—for this thank God. You should see those little ones that should be in school working for a pattry sum per day in the coal mines of Pennsylvania. They are a living example to the whole world. There at present a fight is taking place for manhood and bread. If you could see the condition of the children you woud say God speed the day when the child can he taken from this work and put in the school house.

"A man who is paid small wages cannot raise the family that a man can who is paid higher wages. A union man receives 25 to 50 per cent more for his labor than a non-union man. ms 19,00° than a non-timon main. Sequently they are the better citizens."

Mr. Lennon then gave a resume of the labor conditions and the good results that followed when a workingman belonged to a union.

THOS. KIDD'S SPEECH.

"There are some people who say that we breed dissatisfaction and discontent, And we do. And we will do so until our children are taken from work and put where they should be in the school room and homes. We are going to increase the great army of dissatisfied and discontented people until our industrial conditions are changed. We want the golden harps and the white robes, and the promised land right here on earth."

and the write roots, and the promised land right here on earth."

Mr. Kidd then told of the horrible state of affairs that would exist were unions to dissolve and said that they should stand by each other and organize.

Chairman Smith then said in presenting the speaker of the evening:
"I have the honor to present to you the 'grand old man' of the unions—the man who stands, as a bulwark, between the trusts and labor, Samuel Gompers, president of the Federation of Labor."

of Labor."
After the cheering had ceased, Pres-ident Compers said in part:
"I was much impressed with the re-marks of our chairman, Brother Smith, but all of these great men and grand heroes dwarf into comparative insig-nificance the nearer we are to them. We

They call us 'professional agitators'—if we are sund, we will soon be knocking at the doors of the universities and colleges and demand out diplomas. There are some men who are doing their utmost to dopress us while others are attack. In spite of the relentlessness of our attackers the Federated Trade Unions have grown and grown and I see only strength and prosperity in the future for them. No organization on earth has been able to withstand the attacks made upon us and we are stronger than ever for it. Transportation of the work in securing the rights to which they are entitled. "Another thing that I would call to your attention is this 'nibbling' the edges of the workingman's wages. On one side we have the employer who is constantly 'nibbling' at the wages' of his employes until he forces his competitor who is inclined to treat his employes fairly to do the same thing. The Federated Unions are the best protection against this 'nibbling' business, not only to the employed but to the fair minded employers.

"There are many trying their best to open the gates and ber in a borde of Mon but to the fair minded employers.

"There are many trying their best to open the gates and let in a horde of Mongolians to Chinaize our American workmen. You of the Pacific Slope are the vanguard against this invasion. Beware of the danger that will come from the Far Bast. See that this country remains for the Caucasian race. If long hours and low wages mean industrial superiority, then China ought to stand at the head of the world today. the strikers in the Pennsylvania coal mines."

The speaker then made an appeal for the striking workmen in the anthracite regions and impressed upon the union men that they must help-and support their brothers in the hard battle they are figiting in Pennsylvania.

You can't expect them to stand," continued Mr. Gompers, "unless they have bread to keep up their grit."

In bringing his remarks to a close Mr. Gompers said:

"Men and women of labor and business men of Oakland, bear in mind that there is no movement so far reaching as the Pederation of Labor movement."

Throughout Mr. Gompers' address the amoince would interrupt by bursts of applause, and of the close the speaker was cheered.

The next and last speaker introduced was Jax Morris, secretary of the International Clerks' Association. He spoke very briefly in behalf of the union label and also urged that no one would patronize a store where the union sign was not in evidence or where the clerks were without a union card.

At the conclusion of Mr. Morris' remarks three hearty cheers were given for the unions and then the big crowd slowly filed out of the building.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh, being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the natient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Flundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimenials.
